

CLARKE INFINITY DELIVERING STUNNING BESPOKE SOLUTIONS

The Background: The client purchased Clear Water in 2007 with the intention of creating a perfect, modern family home. Aiming to make the best use of space, light and the location they set about extensive renovations. Following a recommendation from the builder Clarke Infinity were called in during the early planning stages to help the family create a home with “WOW” factor.

The Challenge: To provide the family with a fully integrated home from amazing lighting inside and out, stunning multi room audio sound system, perfect wifi, a luxurious cinema room and more. The solutions had to be reliable, cost effective, discrete and integrated with the existing intercom and CCTV; as well as ensuring an easy to use control making the complex system user friendly and intuitive to operate.

“Our bespoke service draws on years of experience ensuring we deliver stunning results that exceed our client’s expectations and Clear Water certainly delivers. The family are delighted with the solutions that we have tailored to their needs and the end result is magnificent”

The Solution: Clarke Infinity have high-end technical knowledge enabling them to design, source and implement state of the art solutions choosing the right products to best fit the client's needs. Clarke Infinity recommended a fully managed home network system believing excellent wifi central to good AV installation and modern living. The Ruckus network allows perfect connectivity with the multi-networks set up for all the family with some settings pre-programme with parental controls and time restrictions. The cinema room with Bowers & Wilkins flush ceiling speakers is just one further example of solutions chosen to respond to the family's wish to have "discrete" equipment and great sound.

The Equipment

- Crestron CP3
- Crestron pre-power amp Sonnex
- Wyrestorm high definition distribution
- Ruckus wifi
- RTI handsets
- Kaleidescape CD/DVD server
- Samsung TVs
- Bowers & Wilkins speakers
- Bose in ground outdoor speakers
- Lutron lighting control

"We really enjoyed working with Clarke Infinity their expert knowledge and professionalism were a great addition to the team and the finished result is impressive and has the WOW factor we were after!"
