

CLARKE INFINITY SHINING A LIGHT AT THE BEACON

The Background: Jean and David Cooper wanted to realise a life ambition of building their dream home, creating the perfect party pad where they could entertain friends and have fun. The couple called in Clarke Infinity, when the shell of the house was barely up, to help with their vision.

The Challenge: To provide Mr and Mrs Cooper with lighting control throughout their brand new house, amazing sound in every room, perfect Wi-Fi and the cinema they always dreamed of all for a budget of £60,000. The systems had to be simple to operate as it would not only be used by the retired couple but friends and family of all ages. The systems needed to be reliable and of high impact visual to further enhance the buildings innovative design as well as being cost effective.

“The customer is over the moon with the solutions we designed and installed which delivers the wow factor, is simple to use and is on budget.”

The Solution: Clarke Infinity have high-end technical knowledge enabling them to design, source and implement state of the art solutions choosing the right products to best fit the client's needs. Just one such example is the Lutron lighting which was chosen so the couple could enjoy automated control making it easy to switch lights off from one location like the bedroom or exit door saving time and energy. The Pre-programmed lighting means with one switch of a button the room is perfect for yoga, a party or a drink at the Cooper's bespoke bar!

The Equipment

- Lutron lighting and blinds
- Luxul Wi-fi
- Sony projector and Stewart Cinema screen
- Bowers and Wilkins speakers
- Crestron control system
- RTI Remote
- Crestron Sonnex power amplification

“We are thrilled with the work delivered by Clarke Infinity! From our initial meeting to talk about our aspirations through to the design and the installers who were on-site for weeks we were hugely impressed with their professionalism and expertise. We would highly recommend them – they listen and deliver!”
